JOINT SITTING OF THE SRI CHITRA STATE COUNCIL AND THE SRI MULAM ASSEMBLY.

Lieut. Col. D. M. Field, Agent to the Governor-General, Madras States, arrived at 4 P.M., and the Chief Secretary to Government, K. George Esquire, B.A., received him at the gate and led him up to the President's platform where an additional seat had been provided by the side of the President. The Agent to the Governor-General was present throughout the joint sitting.

PRESIDENT: Members of the Legislature, it is my privilege, in welcoming you to the inaugural meeting of the Sri Chitra State Council and the Sri Mulam Assembly, to read to you a gracious message from His Highness the Maha Raja.

The President then read the following message, the whole House standing:

"The two Houses of the re-constituted legislature of Travancore are now about to commence their labours and although I shall not be able to inaugurate them in person, I shall be with them in spirit and it is with the greatest pleasure that I send to them a message of God-speed and of congratulations to the elected and nominated members who are now shouldering large responsibilities.
